

It is sad that Sinclair Broadcasting decided to show a documentray, which critical to Senator Kerry, just before the elections.

Clearly there is a need to regulate stations such as Sinclair, which are using public airwaves without paying a dime.

I hope you will change your decision and stop trying to influence the outcome of an important presidential election.

Thank you.